INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this document “Guidelines and Criteria for NCERT Award For Excellence in Vocational Education” is to facilitate the States/UTs in making nominations for the awardees in four categories as mentioned below. The guidelines will also enable the whole process of selection systematic, transparent and trustworthy.

The details of the eligibility and application procedure for each category of the award are given separately with the document. Only complete entries in the prescribed application form, following the prescribed procedure, will be considered for the award.

ABOUT PSSCIVE

PSS Central Institute of Vocational Education (PSSCIVE) is an apex Research and Development organization in the field of Vocational Education. It is a constituent unit of National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT), established by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India, in 1993 at Bhopal. It is also a UNESCO-UNEVOC (International Project on Technical and Vocational Education) Centre in India.

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The institutions, teachers, industries and students who perform well in vocational education and set examples to be followed by others need to be appreciated and recognized. This will boost the morale of dedicated persons and motivate others as partners in the effective implementation of VET in the country.

With this objective in view, NCERT, through PSSCIVE, gives the awards every year to recognize the services of the persons and organisations who have set exemplary standards in specific areas of their functioning. The details of the awards are as follows:

- (1) Best Vocational Teacher Award One for each State/ UT. The award carries a cash prize of Rs. 5,000/-, a memento and a certificate.
- (2) Best Vocational Institution Award - One for each State/ UT. The award carries a memento and a certificate.
- (3) Best School-Industry Linkage Award- One for each State/ UT. It is given to the school and to the industry for effective collaboration in providing training to vocational students. The award carries a memento and a certificate.
- (4) Best Student Achiever Award - It is given to the six best vocational students from each of the six areas viz. Agriculture, Business & Commerce, Engineering & Technology, Home Science, Health & Paramedical, Humanities, Science & Education from each State/ UT. The award carries a cash prize of Rs. 2,000/-, a memento and a certificate. (Note: The award for the second best achiever has been withdrawn from 2008-2009).

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION OF AWARDEES

In order to assist states in identifying and nominating the best in the above categories, PSSCIVE developed a proforma containing criteria for selecting the awardees. The proforma should be used and the person/ institution with the maximum score may be recommended for the award. This will make the whole process of selection, transparent, systematic and objective. The procedures of selection, is given below.

(1) Best Vocational Teacher Award:

1.1 Eligibility

- a) Full-time/ Part-time Vocational Teacher/ Instructor with at least 4 years (2 years for North-East States) of teaching experience at the 10+2 level in successive academic sessions are eligible for the award.
